

Harsco Completes Successful Debt Repricing; Transaction Provides Significant Interest Cost Savings and Strengthens Financial Flexibility

December 11, 2017

CAMP HILL, Pa., Dec. 11, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) – Harsco Corporation (NYSE:HSC) (the “Company”) announced today the amendment of its existing senior secured credit facilities in order to, among other things, reduce the interest rate applicable to the $546 million of term loans outstanding, improve certain covenants and extend the maturity date by a year until December 2024. Goldman Sachs, Citigroup, HSBC, Merrill Lynch, RBC, U.S. Bank and KeyBanc acted as joint bookrunners and joint lead arrangers for the amendment. Under the amendment, the new effective interest rate is LIBOR plus 300 basis points, a reduction of 200 basis points.

“We are very pleased to have completed this repricing, which provides interest cost and cash flow benefits of approximately $11 million annually and additional flexibility to pursue our strategic priorities,” said Pete Minan, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. “This successful transaction is reflective of the positive momentum within our underlying businesses and progress in strengthening our capital structure.”
